

Comparison of Charitable Solicitation Compliance Companies As of August 2, 2022

Complying with charitable solicitation registration, annual renewals and filings, and disclosure statement requirements for multiple states takes a lot of time and requires detailed and dedicated focus. There are many companies that provide this service at a reasonable cost. Below is a chart comparing various charitable solicitation compliance companies. Pro Bono Partnership of Atlanta does not endorse any of these companies. This chart is intended to provide information from which to start an analysis in choosing a compliance company. Check with each company for up to date information.
